The Barnes Foundation

Picasso: The Great War, Experimentation & Change

$113 Sunday, April 17, 2016

The Barnes Foundation in Philadelphia, PA was established by Albert C. Barnes in 1922 to "promote the advancement of education and the appreciation of the fine arts and horticulture." Explore more than 3,000 masterpieces, including 181 Renoirs, 69 Cézannes, 59 Matisses, 46 Picassos, 16 Modiglianis, and 7 Van Goghs, plus textiles, metalwork, decorative objects, African sculpture, Native American ceramics and jewelry, and Pennsylvania German furniture. We will view the new exhibition Picasso: The Great War, Experimentation & Change. The exhibition will be comprised of about 45 works from American and European museums and private collections. With special emphasis upon the tumultuous years of the First World War, this exhibition focuses upon the artist's oeuvre from 1912 to 1924 during which time Picasso utilized both cubist and classical modes in his art. Picasso's shifts in style became a means of not repeating, in his words, "the same vision, the same technique, the same formula."

Ford Theatre & Dumbarton House

$145

Sunday, April 24, 2016

New

The Ford's Theatre Museum in Washington, DC combines a remarkable collection of historic artifacts with a variety of interactive exhibits to tell the story of Abraham Lincoln's presidency. Exhibits explore Lincoln's Presidential cabinet, what life was like in the Lincoln White House, various Civil War milestones and generals, Lincoln's great speeches and the Assassination conspiracy. Then we will walk through Ford's Theatre and learn more about President Lincoln and the night of his assassination. After the shooting, President Lincoln was carried to the Peterson House and tended in a back bedroom until his death hours later. Later we will visit the Dumbarton House. Built around 1800, this house is a fine example of Federal period architecture that features 18th- and 19th-century furniture and decorative arts (paintings, textiles, silver, and ceramics) made and used during the Republic's formative years. Joseph Nourse, first Register of the U.S. Treasury, and his wife Maria made their home here from 1804 to 1813.

Mike Albert & The Big E Band: A Tribute to Elvis

$115

Wednesday, May 11, 2016

Mike Albert's "Ultimate Tribute" show has become known worldwide for the respectful portrayal of the late Elvis Presley. The show had its beginnings with Mike using sing-a-long tapes of Elvis' hits. Mike won several major world "Elvis" contests, and demand for his shows resulted in putting together a seven piece Big "E" Band, to emulate the sound Elvis' band had in the Vegas shows and on tour. Mike's powerful voice lends itself well to every type of Elvis' music - 50's, 60's and 70's rock and roll and love songs, as well as gospel, he sings it all. Since Elvis had so many hits, Mike makes it a point to keep the show fresh with an ever-changing song line-up! This show is at Penn's Peak in Jim Thorpe, PA. We will use a mini bus for this trip (subject to change).

For Bayside Pick Up, please call for availability.

Early Bird: $105 if paid before April 8 by check, cash or money order.

Price includes transportation, family style lunch and show.

New

This city features world-class architecture by masters like Frank Lloyd Wright, Louis Sullivan and H.H. Richardson, as well as a system of parks and parkways by America's greatest landscape architect, Frederick Law Olmsted.

Day 1 We will travel to Buffalo, the second most populous city in the state of New York. Later we will check into our hotel for

3 nights. Dinner will be included. D

Day 2 After breakfast our local guide will provide a guided tour of the city. The tour is filled with history and architecture. In 2010, Forbes rated Buffalo the 10th best place to raise a family in America. Next, on the tour schedule is the Graycliff Estate. Renowned American architect Frank Lloyd Wright designed Graycliff for Isabelle R. Martin and her husband, Larkin Company executive Darwin D. Martin. Graycliff served as the Martin summer home from 1927 to the mid-1940s. In the afternoon we will take a 90-minute sightseeing harbor cruise of the Buffalo River and the city's waterfront. B, D

Day 3 Our day starts with a visit to the Theodore Roosevelt Inaugural National Historical Site. Immerse yourself in the sights, sounds and emotions surrounding this pivotal moment in our nation's history and learn how the enduring legacy of one of America's greatest presidents affects our lives today. Then we head over to the Darwin D. Martin House. Frank Lloyd Wright designed a unique residential complex for wealthy Buffalo businessman Darwin D. Martin and his family between 1903 - 1905. The complex contains 394 examples of Frank Lloyd Wright-designed art glass, including the famed "Tree of Life" window. Next, our lunch stop will be at the Elmwood Village featuring over 200 locally owned and operated retail stores and restaurants along a beautiful tree-lined street. The last stop is the Buffalo History Museum. This National Historic Landmark building was built in 1901 during the Pan-American Exposition, and features exhibits and collection of artifacts, manuscripts, and photographs chronicling the development of Buffalo & the Niagara Frontier. B, D

Day 4 On our way home, we will visit the Erie Canal Museum in Syracuse. The museum was founded in 1962 and is housed in a weigh lock building dating from 1850, where canal boats used to be weighed when travelling through Syracuse on the canal. The museum includes a gallery of present canal life. B

Price includes transportation, 3 nights' hotel, 3 continental breakfasts, 3 dinners and admissions.
