With a crown on her head and a secret in her heart, can she find the courage to trust in God's plan and believe that she was made for such a time as this? After the show, we will have dinner together at Good 'N Plenty followed by checking into our hotel.

Day 2 This morning our local guide will welcome us with a guided tour of Amish Country. This tour will take you off the beaten path, past working farms and along country roads where buggies roll along and farmers work their fields. Later we will make a stop at Bird-in-Hand Farmer's Market and Mount Hope Wine Gallery for wine tasting. Then we are off to Kitchen Kettle Village with over 40 shops and restaurants for shopping and have lunch on our own. B

New England Fall Festivals

Saturday, September 11 - Sunday, September 12

$349 Double, $329 Triple, $399 Single

New

Day 1 Our journey this morning will be to Hampton, New Hampshire, originally a summer village for Native Americans. Our first visit will be the John Greenleaf Whittier Home & Museum in Amesbury, MA. Built circa 1829, this classic New England farmhouse retains the decor and structure of the home as Whittier and his family knew it during the mid- and late 1800s. John Greenleaf Whittier was an American Quaker poet and advocate of the abolition of slavery in the United States. We will then head to Hampton Beach Seafood Festival, voted one of the top 100 events in North America. The festivities will include over 50 of the Seacoast's top restaurants; over 60 arts and crafts vendors, hundreds of Ocean Blvd merchants offering Sidewalk Sales; culinary chef demonstrations, two stages of continuous entertainment, a spectacular fireworks display and more. Afterwards we will check into our hotel.

Day 2 After breakfast our first visit will be the Old Slater Mill National Historic Landmark recognized internationally as the birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution. Rhode Island Seafood Festival will be celebrating its 10th year! Come down to the waterfront India Point Park in downtown Providence for the best collection of seafood you'll find anywhere. Local drinks, live music, artists, games, and more! B

Price includes transportation, hotel, hot breakfast, lunch and admissions.

$359 Double, $339 Triple, $399 Single

New

Day 1 Annapolis, the capital of Maryland, is a vibrant city, proud of its charming colonial heritage and a center of sailing and boating in the Mid-Atlantic. We will first visit the Banneker-Douglass Museum named for native Marylanders, Benjamin Banneker and Frederick Douglass. The museum is dedicated to preserving Maryland's African-American heritage and culture. Then we are off to the Annual Maryland Seafood Festival celebrating over 50 years of food at Sandy Point State Park with delicious seafood dishes, live music performances, exhibits, arts & crafts, interactive cooking demonstrations, exciting competitions, and more all hosted along the beautiful shores of the scenic Chesapeake Bay! Later we will check into our hotel in Baltimore area. D

Day 2 Our day starts with a visit to the B&O Railroad Museum, featuring historic railroad equipment in Baltimore, Maryland. Next, Fort McHenry is primarily known for the Battle of Baltimore during the War of 1812, when American troops stopped a British invasion. The battle inspired Francis Scott Key to pen what would become the national anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner" - originally entitled "Defense of Fort McHenry". During the Civil War, the fort served as a military prison. Later we will make a stop at Inner Harbor for shopping and have lunch on our own. B

Four Day Tours

Music Trails to Mountain Rails, West Virginia Including 2 Shows & 1 Train Ride

Thursday, July 29 - Sunday, August 1 (4 Days)

$779 Double, $739 Triple, $899 Single

Nestled in the beautiful Appalachian Mountains of West Virginia, Randolph County is a natural paradise that has long been a destination for travellers and outdoor adventure enthusiasts. Here you will find a charming community that is rich in heritage, alive with the arts, and blessed with unparalleled scenic beauty.

Day 1 This morning we travel to "Wild & Wonderful" West Virginia. Upon arrival, we will check into the only railroad-themed inn in Elkins, the Iron Road Inn for the next three nights. D

Day 2 After a continental breakfast at the inn, we are off to the Pocahontas County and the town of Durbin to ride the Durbin Rocket, a classic steam locomotive, only one of three operating Climax-g geared logging engines on earth. This two-hour wilderness ride follows the Greenbrier River into the Monongahela National Forest. After the ride, shop at the Rail & Trail Store and grab the famous "Big Scoop" hand-dipped ice cream cone. Then it's off to the Beverly Heritage Center, a compelling heritage attraction with a first-rate modern museum that tells the story of the Battle of Rich Mountain and the First Campaign of the American Civil War. Later we will visit Graceland, a stone mansion completed in 1893, served as the summer home of Senator Henry Gassaway Davis. It has been completely restored and is now operated as an inn. Tonight we will enjoy an amazing dinner show where the performers pay their tribute to such musical legends as Dolly Parton, Kenny Rogers, Johnny and June Cash, Elvis and many more. B, D

Day 3 After breakfast, we will visit the International Mother's Day Shrine at Andrews Methodist Episcopal Church in Grafton. Growing in fame, the Mother's Day Church, built in 1873, was designated a National Historic Landmark in 1992. Next, Adalund Mansion, a stately brick home at Philippi, is set against the rolling hills of Barbour County and was built in 1870. The 23-room, Greek Revival Mansion house has been restored with great attention to authenticity and features homemade brick and walnut woodwork throughout. Later we will see the Philippi Covered Bridge, the site of the first land battle of the Civil War. The Bridge was completed in 1852 to a design by West Virginia's pioneer covered bridge builder, Lemuel Chenoweth. Tonight after a wonderful plated dinner, sit back and listen to the fabulous Mountain Memories Show Band as they serve up a 2 hour Branson-style show with music from the 40's- today featuring Country, Pop, Motown, Gospel, and Patriotic along with family- friendly comedy and amazing dancers. The Gandy Dancer offers a show that's guaranteed to have you dancing in your seat, laughing 'til you cry, touch your heart and give you memories that will last a lifetime. B, D

Day 4 We will depart for home with many happy memories. B

Cleveland, Rock & Roll & Beyond

Monday, August 16 - Thursday, August 19 (4 Days)

$759 Double, $719 Triple, $859 Single

Day 1 This morning we will be travelling to Cleveland, a city filled with spectacular attractions. Here we are going to discover the unexpected side of Cleveland. We will check into our hotel for the next 3 nights in Cleveland area. Tonight we will have our welcome dinner together. D

Day 2 After breakfast we will visit the First Ladies National Historic Site in Canton, OH. The site was established in 2000 to commemorate all the United States First Ladies and comprises two buildings: the Ida Saxton McKinley Historic Home and the Education & Research Center. The Ida Saxton McKinley Historic Home preserves the home of Ida McKinley, the wife of U.S. President William McKinley. The brick Victorian house, built in 1841 and modified in 1865, is furnished in the style of the Victorian era. Next, we will board the St. Helena III boat departing from the Canal Fulton Canalway Center. This canal trip is over two miles round trip and takes approximately 55 minutes to travel. On our journey, the horse drawn canal boat takes its passengers past the McLaughlin Dry Dock where the St. Helena III is stored for the winter. At the far end of the course, the boat reaches the Lock IV turning basin. Here the boat crew skillfully pulls the boat around for the scenic trip back home. Later we will take a tour of Stan Hywet Hall & Gardens, the former American Country Estate of F.A. Seiberling, co-founder of The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company. The estate features a historic 65-room Tudor Revival Manor House, Gothic Revival Conservatory, Gate Lodge (birthplace of Alcoholics Anonymous) and approximately 70 acres of artistically landscaped grounds and formal gardens. This house is noted for its intricate paneling, made from American Oak, rosewood and Chestnut. B, D

Day 3 This morning our local guide will provide a guided tour of Cleveland. Cleveland obtained its name on July 22, 1796 when surveyors of the Connecticut Land Company laid out Connecticut's Western Reserve into townships and a capital city they named "Cleaveland" after their leader, General Moses Cleaveland. Our lunch stop will be at the West Side Market, Cleveland's oldest publicly owned market featuring over 100 vendors of great ethnic diversity. Afterwards we will Rock and Roll at the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame & Museum. We will witness the recorded history of some of the best known and most influential people in the history of rock and roll and pay homage to your favorite artists, hear their music and see one-of-a-kind memorabilia. B, D

Day 4 After breakfast we will depart for home. B
