My Mother's Italian, My Father's Jewish & I'm In Therapy - Tropicana

$160 Thursday, March 30

Steve Solomon's two-time award-winning show has met with rave reviews and great audience acclaim throughout the country, becoming one of the longest-running one-man shows in Broadway history. Once again, we meet the people that we're all too familiar with - the family members that make you remember why you left home in the first place. It's a laugh-filled fest of everybody you know, have known, and some you'd want to forget but can't, all brought to life on stage by the comic magic of Steve Solomon. Described as "One part lasagna, one-part kreplach, and two parts Prozac," you don't have to be Jewish or Italian to love this show. All you need is to know what it feels like to leave a family dinner with heartburn and a headache! My Mother's Italian, My Father's Jewish and I'm In Therapy ran for two years in New York City, has toured internationally to more than 200 cities and has sold almost a million tickets so far. "Amazing! Hysterical! A wonderful show! I still hurt from laughing!" - BroadwayWorld.com. This show is at Tropicana Casino in Atlantic City. Price includes transportation, $25 slot, $15 food and show.

Washington, DC Cherry Blossom

$149 Saturday, April 1

In the year 1912 the United States was given a gift from Mayor Yukio Ozaki of Tokyo of 3,000 Cherry Trees to Washington D.C. The gift and annual celebration honor the lasting friendship between the United States and Japan. The blooming of the cherry trees around the Tidal Basin in Washington, D.C. has come to symbolize the natural beauty of our nation's capital city. The famous trees signal Washington's beginning of spring with an explosion of life and color that surrounds the Tidal Basin in a sea of pale pink & white blossoms. We will visit the Jefferson, Roosevelt, Martin Luther King, Lincoln, Vietnam & Korean War Memorials, and make a photo stop at the White House. We will return home late. This is a walking tour.

Smokey & Me: The Celebration of Smokey Robinson - Caesars

$165 Thursday, July 27 Early Bird $150

As the story goes, Smokey Robinson, a founder of Motown and one of the producers of Motown: The Musical, went backstage on opening night to look for the handsome young actor who portrayed him in the show. When he found him backstage, he came up to him, smiled and simply said, "Hello, Me!" This delightful story became the inspiration for a spectacular show that celebrates the life, music and career of acclaimed singer-songwriter Smokey Robinson, once pronounced by Bob Dylan as America's "greatest living poet." Join Tony-nominee Charl Brown to celebrate Smokey's story and many of his biggest hits: both the ones he sang and the ones he wrote, including, "Shop Around", "Going to a Go-Go", "You've Really Got a Hold on Me", "My Girl", "I Second That Emotion", "Tracks of My Tears", and so many more. Three Day Tours

Memorial Day Weekend in PA

Saturday, May 27 - Monday, May 29

$459 Double, $439 Triple, $419 Quad, $539 Single

Day 1 Our journey begins with a visit to the Jefferson County History Center founded in 1967 in Brookville showcasing many unique exhibits depicting the history of Jefferson County and the surrounding areas. Later we will check into Quality Inn in Clarion for the next two nights. D

Day 2 We will travel to the Drake Well Museum, the site where, in 1859, the world's first commercial oil well was drilled. The Museum's exhibits include a working replica of the first oil well. The Museum tells the story of the beginning of the modern oil industry with orientation videos, exhibits, operating oil field machinery, and historic buildings in a park setting. Then we will tour the Tarbell House, a Victorian-era home. Ida Minerva Tarbell was an American teacher, author and journalist. She was one of the leading "muckrakers" of the progressive era. Our next stop is to learn about Venango County's fascinating history at the Venango Museum of Art, Science and Industry. The "Black Gold or Black Magic" display teaches you how oil affects us still today. Lastly, DeBence Antique Music World. You won't be able to stop your toes from tapping to music of the Gay Nineties and the Roaring Twenties, played on antique calliopes, nickelodeons and other automated music machines. You will marvel over this extraordinary collection of over 100 antique mechanical musical instruments. B, D

Day 3 After breakfast we will head to the Sutton-Ditz House Museum, a National Register Treasure, located in Clarion, PA. Thomas Sutton was a well respected and admired attorney. July 4th Celebration in Virginia

Monday, July 3 - Thursday, July 6 (4 Days)

$849 Double, $819 Triple, $999 Single

*Save $40 if payments are made in full by Zelle, check, money order or cash before May 5

Day 1 This morning we are travelling to Virginia. We will visit the Edinburg Mill built by Major George Grandstaff in 1848. It is one of only a few that survived "The Burning" during the Civil War. The Museum tells the story of the mill, the town, the Valley Pike, the Shenandoah River, and the railroad. Later we will check into our hotel in Lexington for the next three nights. D

Day 2 Our first visit today will be the Thomas Jefferson's Poplar Forest. Designed during his 2nd term as President, Jefferson sojourned to Poplar Forest in his retirement to spend time with his grandchildren and escape public life. Celebrate the 247th anniversary of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence in historic style. Enjoy colonial-style entertainment, demonstrations by colonial artisans and craftspeople, archaeological displays, old-fashioned children's activities, pony rides, a reading of the Declaration of Independence and more! Then we are off to Historic Avenel, circa 1838, which was the focal point of a 200-acre plantation that has served as the centerpiece of the social, cultural and political life of Bedford for over 150 years. Distinguished guests included General Robert E. Lee and Edgar Allan Poe. Later we will visit the National D-Day Memorial located in Bedford, the community that suffered the highest per capita D-Day losses in the nation. The Memorial honors the Allied forces that participated in the invasion of Normandy on June 6, 1944 during World War II. With its stylized English Garden, haunting invasion tableau, and striking Victory Plaza, the Memorial stands as a powerful permanent tribute to the valor, fidelity, and sacrifice of D-Day participants. Later we will have dinner together. B, D

Day 3 Virginia's Appomattox Court House National Historic Park is the site where General Robert E. Lee surrendered in 1865, ending the Civil War. At The McLean House, General Robert E. Lee and Lieutenant General Ulysses S. Grant worked out the terms of reunification. Next, Point of Honor stands on a tract cleared from the wilderness where Monacan Indians once camped, and has been home to some of 19th century Virginia's most remarkable citizens. Our last stop will be Natural Bridge once owned by Thomas Jefferson and listed on the National Register of Historic Places. 215 feet of solid rock, carved by the fingers of nature, span the steep ravine over Cedar Creek at Virginia's Natural Bridge State Park. B, D

Day 4 We will visit the Patsy Cline Historic House in Winchester. See where she lived, slept and spent her "prime years" while pursuing her music career. Cline was the first solo female singer to become a member of the Grand Ole Opry in 1960, and the first woman to be inducted in the Country Music Hall of Fame in 1973. B
