Washington, DC Cherry Blossom

$149

Saturday, March 30

In the year 1912 the United States was given a gift from Mayor Yukio Ozaki of Tokyo of 3,000 Cherry Trees to Washington D.C. The gift and annual celebration honor the lasting friendship between the United States and Japan. The blooming of the cherry trees around the Tidal Basin in Washington, D.C. has come to symbolize the natural beauty of our nation's capital city. The famous trees signal Washington's beginning of spring with an explosion of life and color that surrounds the Tidal Basin in a sea of pale pink & white blossoms. We will visit the Jefferson, Roosevelt, Martin Luther King, Lincoln, Vietnam & Korean War Memorials, and make a photo stop at the White House. We will return home late. This is a walking tour.

Christmas at Glencairn & Glen Foerd

$149

Tuesday, December 10

Christmas has been celebrated at Glencairn since Raymond and Mildred Pitcairn moved into their new home in 1939. Today Glencairn Museum located in Bucks County, PA continues this tradition, a Christmas in the Castle, and its collection features outstanding examples of Nativity art, including paintings, illuminated manuscripts, sculptures, and stained-glass windows, many dating to the medieval period. World Nativities exhibition presents dozens of three-dimensional Nativity scenes collected from around the globe. Glen Foerd is the last surviving riverfront estate in the City of Philadelphia, and was built circa 1850 by Charles Macalester, founder of Torresdale and financial adviser to eight U.S. Presidents. In 1893 the estate was acquired by Robert H. Foerderer, a U.S. Congressman. His daughter, Florence Foerderer Tonner, a noted patron of the arts and collector, lived at Glen Foerd until her death in 1972.
