Four Day Tours

There's Only One Kentucky

Monday, April 6 - Saturday, April 11, 2026 (6 Days)

$1399 Double, $1349 Triple, $1659 Single

Kentucky is one of four U.S. states designated as a commonwealth. Originally part of Virginia, it became the 15th state to join the Union in 1792. Known as the "Bluegrass State" for the lush bluegrass covering its fertile pastures, Kentucky is celebrated for its rich history, horse farms, bourbon heritage, and warm Southern hospitality.

Day 1 Our journey begins with a morning departure from New York, traveling to the Cambridge, Ohio area for an overnight stay, where we will enjoy a welcome dinner. D

Day 2 Today we continue into Kentucky, arriving in Louisville, the state's largest city, founded in 1778 by George Rogers Clark and named in honor of King Louis XVI of France. Our first stop is the Louisville Slugger Museum & Factory, where you'll witness the creation of legendary baseball bats used by professional players. Enjoy interactive exhibits, explore the factory floor, and don't miss the world's largest baseball bat. Everyone will receive a complimentary mini bat souvenir. Next, we visit the Roots 101 African American

Museum, founded in 2020 by Lamont Collins. This powerful and thought-provoking museum showcases the African American journey through over 11,000 square feet of impactful exhibits—from African origins to modern-day cultural achievements. Later, we check into our Louisville hotel. B, D

Day 3 After breakfast, we visit the Kentucky Derby Museum, dedicated to celebrating the history and prestige of the "Greatest Two Minutes in Sports." Enjoy a guided tour of the historic Churchill Downs Racetrack and meet a resident horse and miniature horse. In the afternoon, we head to Frankfort, Kentucky's charming capital. Visit the impressive State Capitol, completed in 1910. Kentucky's Capitol is the fourth permanent building since statehood in 1792. The historic Old Governor's Mansion, which stands as a symbol of the state's political and cultural past. We'll also make a photo stop at the colorful Floral Clock, beautifully planted with thousands of flowers. That evening, we arrive in Lexington and check into our hotel for a two-night stay. B, D

Day 4 Today we explore Lexington, the heart of Kentucky's horse country. We begin at the Kentucky Horse Park, a working horse farm and educational theme park. Our visit includes admission to the International Museum of the Horse, the American Saddlebred Museum, a horse-drawn tour, and live equine presentations. Next, enjoy lunch at The Square, a vibrant downtown Lexington district that has been a hub of activity since the 1880s. Afterward, we'll stop by the University of Kentucky Art Museum, which features a diverse collection of over 4,800 artworks, including European, American, and non-Western art. Next is the Evan Williams Bourbon Experience on Louisville's historic Whiskey Row. This immersive distillery tour includes bourbon tastings and a fascinating look into the making of Kentucky's signature spirit. B

Day 5 This morning, we visit Waveland State Historic Site, a beautifully preserved Greek Revival mansion built in 1848 by Joseph Bryan, a grandnephew of Daniel Boone. Learn about the lives of the Bryan family and life on a 19th-century Kentucky plantation. We then travel to Charleston, West Virginia, to explore the West Virginia State Museum, offering engaging exhibits on the region's cultural and historical heritage. Later, check into our final night's hotel in West Virginia. B, D
