Thanksgiving in Richmond, VA

Thursday, November 26 - Sunday, November 29 (4 Days)

New

$989 Double, $949 Triple, $1169 Single

Day 1 Come and celebrate Thanksgiving with us in Richmond, Virginia. Upon arrival, we will enjoy a traditional Thanksgiving dinner at an American restaurant. After dinner, we will check into our hotel in Richmond, where we will stay for the next three nights. D

Day 2 We begin the day with a visit to the Virginia State Capitol, designed in 1785 by Thomas Jefferson with the assistance of Charles-Louis Clérisseau while Jefferson was serving as U.S. Minister to France. The historic Capitol houses an impressive collection of paintings and sculptures, including the original statue of George Washington created from life by Jean-Antoine Houdon. Next, we visit the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, one of the nation's finest art museums. Opened in 1936, it features a remarkable permanent collection of more than 50,000 works representing nearly every major world culture. In the afternoon, we explore the Gilded Age Maymont Estate, a stunning example of the wealth and luxury enjoyed by a select few families during this era. The estate was once home to James and Sallie May Dooley and remains one of Richmond's most beautiful historic properties. This evening, we attend the GardenFest of Lights at Lewis Ginter Botanical Garden, a spectacular holiday event featuring over a million lights, imaginative botanical displays, model trains, and festive activities. B, D

Day 3 We visit Petersburg National Battlefield Park, which commemorates the nine-and-a-half-month siege of the city from June 1864 to April 1865. The Eastern Front Visitor Center offers exhibits and audiovisual programs that introduce the story of the siege and its significance in the Civil War. Our next stop is the Poe Museum, located in Edgar Allan Poe's hometown. The museum preserves the Old Stone House—Richmond's oldest standing residence—as well as the historic Poe Shrine and the enchanting garden inspired by Poe's poetry. We then visit the Virginia Holocaust Museum, a powerful educational center dedicated to preserving the history and lessons of the Holocaust. Through authentic artifacts, survivor testimonies, and immersive exhibits—including a reconstructed cattle car—the museum promotes remembrance, tolerance, and human dignity. Finally, we explore The American Civil War Museum at Tredegar, featuring two floors of exhibits that trace the story of the Civil War from its origins through Reconstruction. The museum stands on the site of the Tredegar Iron Works, where more than half of the cannons used by the Confederate army were produced, including those that fired the first shots at Fort Sumter. B, D

Day 4 After breakfast, we depart for home. On the way, we will stop at Baltimore's Inner Harbor for shopping and lunch on your own. B
Payment is by Zelle, check, money order or cash only. No credit or debit card payments accepted.
