A whale of a tale

Jonah is a prophet and a man desperately trying to outrun his calling from God—a calling that leads straight to his enemy, Nineveh. After uncharted adventures lead him off a storm-tossed ship and into the belly of a giant fish, Jonah believes all hope is lost. But in the depths, will he learn how to receive grace and extend mercy, even toward those he opposed the most? Complete with magnificent sets, immersive special effects, and live animals, JONAH is a state-of-the-art theatrical experience for the whole family. Experience one of the Bible's most powerful stories of mercy as Jonah's journey comes to life like never before in this original production from Sight & Sound Theatres in Lancaster, PA. The Eastern Front Visitor Center offers exhibits and audiovisual programs that introduce the story of the siege and its significance in the Civil War. Our next stop is the Poe Museum, located in Edgar Allan Poe's hometown. The museum preserves the Old Stone House—Richmond's oldest standing residence—as well as the historic Poe Shrine and the enchanting garden inspired by Poe's poetry. We then visit the Virginia Holocaust Museum, a powerful educational center dedicated to preserving the history and lessons of the Holocaust. Through authentic artifacts, survivor testimonies, and immersive exhibits—including a reconstructed cattle car—the museum promotes remembrance, tolerance, and human dignity. Finally, we explore The American Civil War Museum at Tredegar, featuring two floors of exhibits that trace the story of the Civil War from its origins through Reconstruction. The museum stands on the site of the Tredegar Iron Works, where more than half of the cannons used by the Confederate army were produced, including those that fired the first shots at Fort Sumter. B, D

Known as the "Bluegrass State," Kentucky is famous for its rolling horse farms, bourbon heritage, rich history, and warm Southern hospitality. Originally part of Virginia, Kentucky became the 15th state admitted to the Union in 1792 and remains one of only four U.S. states designated as a commonwealth.

Day 1 Our journey begins with a morning departure from New York as we travel to the Cambridge, Ohio area for an overnight stay and welcome dinner. D

Day 2 Today we continue to Louisville, Kentucky's largest city. Visit the Louisville Slugger Museum & Factory, where you'll see how the famous baseball bats used by professional players are made. Explore the exhibits, tour the factory floor, and receive a complimentary mini bat souvenir. Next, visit the Roots 101 African American Museum, featuring inspiring exhibits highlighting African American history, culture, and achievements. Later, check into our Louisville hotel. B, D

Day 3 After breakfast, visit the Kentucky Derby Museum and enjoy a guided tour of historic Churchill Downs, home of the Kentucky Derby. In the afternoon, travel to Frankfort, Kentucky's charming capital city. Visit the impressive Kentucky State Capitol, the historic Old Governor's Mansion, and the colorful Floral Clock. Later, continue to Lexington for a two-night stay. B, D

Day 4 Today we explore Lexington, the heart of Kentucky horse country. Visit the Kentucky Horse Park, a working horse farm and educational park featuring the International Museum of the Horse, horse presentations, and a horse-drawn tour. Enjoy free time for lunch and shopping in downtown Lexington before visiting the University of Kentucky Art Museum, home to a diverse collection of artwork from around the world. Later, experience the Evan Williams Bourbon Experience on historic Whiskey Row, where you'll learn about Kentucky bourbon-making traditions and enjoy tastings. B

Day 5 This morning, visit the historic Waveland State Historic Site, a beautifully preserved 19th-century mansion connected to the family of Daniel Boone. We then travel to Charleston to explore the West Virginia State Museum, featuring engaging exhibits on the region's history and culture. Overnight in West Virginia. B, D

Discover the best of Chicago on this exciting six day getaway from New York City. Experience the city's world-famous architecture, museums, lakefront views, historic neighborhoods, and cultural attractions, including the newly opened Obama Presidential Center.

Day 1 This morning, we will depart for the "Windy City," Chicago, one of the most exciting cities in the country. Along the way, we will stop for the night and check into our hotel in Ohio. Dinner will be on your own.

Day 2 After breakfast, we will continue west to Studebaker National Museum in South Bend, Indiana. Discover more than 114 years of transportation history and learn about the region's industrial heritage, from the early 1800s to the present. We will continue to Chicago and check into Sleep Inn in Bedford Patk, IL for the next three nights. Dinner will be on your own. B

Day 3 This morning, enjoy a guided sightseeing tour of Chicago, featuring the Financial District, the Loop, and the Magnificent Mile. We will visit Navy Pier, one of Chicago's most popular attractions, where you can enjoy shopping, restaurants, beautiful lakefront views, and the free stained glass museum. Later, we will take a cruise on Lake Michigan, enjoying spectacular views while learning about Chicago's colorful history and famous landmarks. Tonight, we will enjoy dinner together. B, D

Day 4 After breakfast, we will visit the Obama Presidential Center Museum. Explore the remarkable story of President Barack Obama and First Lady Michelle Obama through dynamic exhibits spanning four floors, highlighting democracy, leadership, and the work of the Obama presidency. Next, experience breathtaking views of Chicago from the famous Willis Tower Skydeck, featuring spectacular city views and interactive exhibits. Our next stop will be the Shedd Aquarium, where we will discover thousands of fascinating animals from aquatic habitats around the world. Meet creatures ranging from whales and dolphins to sea otters, sea lions, penguins, turtles, and more. We will also explore the Shedd's Abbott Oceanarium, where we can see beluga whales, dolphins, sea otters, sea lions, and penguins up close. Dinner will be on your own. B

Day 5 Our final Chicago attraction will be Pullman National Historical Park, which preserves the historic Pullman community, one of America's first planned industrial towns. Learn about George Pullman's railroad sleeping car company, the lives of Pullman workers, the historic Pullman Porters, and the important 1894 Pullman Strike and its impact on American labor history. This evening, we will enjoy a farewell dinner before checking into our hotel in Ohio. B, D
